

Scott Petito Bio

Scott Petito is an award winning composer, producer and engineer. He is a gifted bassist and multi-instrumentalist who has performed on hundreds of recordings in many musical styles. Scott has become particularly well known for his work in the folk and jazz genres, working with such musicians as; James Taylor, Pete Seeger, The Band, Jack DeJohnette, Don Byron and Dave Brubeck.

He studied composition and arranging at Berklee College of Music. He has scored films for the BBC, Robert Redford and PBS. His productions have charted in Billboard Magazine and have received gold record honors. Scott composed the theme song for the NPR program "With Good Reason". He is a member of the seminal political/poetic rock group The Fugs. For the last 10 years he has toured and recorded with partner, Leslie Ritter. Over the years their recordings have received world wide acclaim. Scott's ambient solo bass record, "Sbass Music" debuted at the top of the NAV Charts and has been played on over 450 radio stations in the US and abroad.

"...Petito's been quietly amassing an awesome body of fine work, i creating his own sub-genre of intelligent adult music..."

- The Woodstock Times