

Celtic Pilgrimage

Áine Minogue

Few events change one's life as deeply as a sacred pilgrimage—a journey that recharges the spirit, returns us to wholeness of mind and body, and brings clarity to our relationship with the divine. On Celtic Pilgrimage, Irish harpist Áine Minogue uses instrumental music and rich lyrical poetry to capture the full emotional spectrum of a pilgrimage. From the initial fears of unknown territory and the longing for home, to the new perspective and the rediscovery of joy we gain when the journey is complete, these 11 moving selections lead us on an adventure in sound to remind us of the sacred road we all travel.

With Eugene Friesen on cello; Steve Gorn on Bansuri flutes; Scott Petito on keyboards, bass, and guitar; percussion by Chris Carey; and overtone singing by Baird Hersey.

“Áine Minogue is ‘A breath of fresh Eire.’”
— Entertainment Weekly

“This Irish harpist combines a hypnotic Celtic spirituality and contemporary sophistication in her playing and delicately lovely singing.”
— The Boston Globe

“Áine Minogue is close enough to her Celtic sources to be nourished by them, but not so close that they root her to the spot.”
— Billboard magazine

“Áine Minogue proves beyond reasonable doubt why the harp is indeed the instrument of angels.”
— Los Angeles Times
